

ALKÉKENGE – AMOUR

From a fluffy cloud, Cupid shoots an arrow. It passes through two winged lovers and hits a physalis. The point pierces this fruit, symbol of passion, before it explodes into a thousand pieces, creating an intensely starry sky.

BOUGAINVILLÉE – BRISE MARINE

Bougainvillea flowers appear on the far-away horizon of the sea, from which a fresh breeze blows.

COQUELICOT – COMÈTE

In a poppy field, symbols of dreams and imagination, light and ethereal figures undulate, from the roots to the top, rising as if to reach furtive comets in the sky.

DAPHNÉ – DAPHNÉ

To escape from their senescence, fine entangled branches draw the silky hair of Daphne while evaporating in a diaphanous profusion of flowers.

EDELWEISS – ÉTOILE

Unique flower and rare star, the edelweiss blooms on the slopes of the steepest mountains. Sometimes at night, even if by thought alone, it returns to its cradle among the stars of the sky.

FRAISIER DES BOIS – FORTUNE

A thick carpet of small fragrant strawberries is guided by the destiny of a tiny ladybird fluttering on its flowery coat.

GLYCINE – GRÂCE DU PRINTEMPS

Light branches of fragrant wisteria sway in the wind, revealing the tranquility of a spring landscape in the distance.

HÉMÉROCALLE – HEURES

Daylilies, “beauties of a single day”, prisoners of the passing of time, decompose to escape the hours that pass, like the butterfly that abandons the chrysalis to fly away.

IRIS – ILLUSIONNISME

As if by enchantment, nature helps delicate irises bloom in the dense nebula of a spring morning.

JASMIN – JARDIN BLANC

On a radiant and warm April day, in the garden of Monsieur Dior's favorite home, jasmines offer their corollas to the sun for the first time. With their fragrant whiteness, they delicately perfume the air.

KNAUTIA – KALÉIDOSCOPE

After a storm, a ray of white light is reflected on an old mirror where a multitude of curious flowers are looking for their reflection... but one of them finds it and, as if by magic, a play of light gives life to a floral kaleidoscope.

LAVANDE – LUMIÈRE

In a lavender field, plunged in deep darkness, small fireflies are busy diffusing their glow inside fine paper lanterns to give birth and germinate new buds. Time is short as the sun will soon rise.

MUGUET – MERVEILLE

In a fairytale garden, covered with sprigs of lily of the valley, a praying mantis sees an ancient pendant set with a mirror between the leaves, thanks to the brightness of the stars. For the first time, she discovers the reflection of her own image...
A pure marvel!

NÉNUPHAR – NYMPHE

Water lilies float in calm water towards the waterfalls of the Ninfa, an effusive embodiment of female existence on earth.

ORCHIDÉE – OMBRE

Delicate orchids appear and disappear between fine lines, as if in an infinite play of shadows.

PIVOINE – PLUIE MAGIQUE

A monotonous day yields to the sound and rhythm of beating rain which, while spreading the petals of large peonies, carries them away with it in a new symphony.

QUADRILOBE – QUAND VIENT LE SOIR

When evening comes, the meadow hides its rarest treasures, and only luck can reveal the four-leaf clovers at sunset.

ROSE – ROMANTIQUE

Escaped from a sunny rose garden, small roses climb to the window of two lovers before swirling in the space of a clear sky.

SCILLE – SOUFFLER

On a spring day, the flowers of the scillas play in order to be blown by the breath of a light breeze.

TOURNESOL – TRÉSOR

The sun shines in the sky and fills the cosmos with its rays. Blown away by so much light, the sunflowers turn their gaze towards this treasure, luminous source of life.

UNCARINA – UNIVERS

Precious flowers of a starry universe, these bright yellow corollas turn and wander, as if suspended in an ethereal atmosphere.

VIOLETTE – VOLER

Perfume of violets in the air.

The birds of paradise have left the cage that sheltered them, and by raising our eyes to the sky, we see them flying freely between the branches of tall secular trees.

WEIGELA – WAX

Dancing weigelas are transformed into fantastic mirages of floral compositions.

XYLIA – XERANTHEMUM

The Xylia, the thousand-year-old soul of the forest, appears stealthily in the heart of nature, displaying the vivacity of its flowers in a thousand shades.

YLANG -YLANG – YEUX

Within a golden waterfall, the petals of ylang-ylang metamorphose fleetingly into astonishing undulating eye-like shapes.

ZINNIA – ZODIAQUE

A sun bathes the silhouettes of more or less distant stars in a dazzling light. Constellations appear, like twinkling flowers that twirl around.
